TALENTED CHILDREN DONATE ART TO TCHC PEDIATRIC CLINIC

Lafayette, Ind. – Cindy Krulitz, local artist and instructor for “Drawing Magic” and her talented young art students donated their time and skills to brighten up the Pediatric Department waiting area at the Tippecanoe Community Health Clinic (TCHC).

Student’s ages 8-12 designed and painted the colorful mural, and the patients are enjoying it.

“The mural is a wonderful addition that many will enjoy for years to come ,” stated Interim Vice-President of Medical Affairs James Livermore, M.D., “this service project is not only something the students enjoyed, but it helps bring a smile to the faces of children in the community.”

The TCHC provides primary health and dental care to Tippecanoe County residents who lack financial resources. Fees at the Clinic are based on a sliding scale from the Department of Health and Human Services using Federal Poverty Guidelines.
